This is your MOST important relationship of the party.
 Know your host so you can make personal connections!
 Leading up to the party, ask simple questions like: -
 Why are you excited to have a party?
 Have you created your wishlist? I'd love to know what's on it?
 Are there specific people that you are excited to invite? Who? Why? *

Make a personal connection!

5 Key Touch Points with your Host

3. Midway from the party. Answer questions and encourage her to collect outside orders.
4. 24-48 Hours. Go over what to expect, provide scripting for reminders to her guests and gather any outside orders.
